As a Freedom Center Camp Parent, I enjoy...

"Of all the summer camps we have attended over the years, this is by far the best experience we’ve had! We love the coach’s enthusiasm and interaction with the children and the level of security you have in place to ensure our children’s safety! We’ve had other incidents were children ran wild within the facility with little to no supervision, so this comes as a GREAT relief to see such measures being taken. My daughter had so much fun and it was a direct reflection of the fun the coaches allowed the kids to have.”

Be sure to register early and make final plans for the summer!

$25 last minute registration fee for any new registrations two weeks prior to the camp week.

All forms are available on the Freedom Center’s website!

ALL campers are required to have a COMPLETE Camp Emergency Form on file at least one week prior to his/her first day of camp. Due to our required license through Virginia Department of Social Services, we are required to have a current copy of a physical, immunization record and proof of birth for all campers.

Additional forms required if your child will need medication to be administered. All forms must be signed by physician.

The Freedom Summer
Camp Crew

“Unity is strength... When there is team work and collaboration, wonderful things can be achieved,”
Mattie Stepanek

The Freedom Staff Family is more than a seasonal summer crew. The unique aspect of our staff is what makes our camp an experience for all campers throughout the summer. Each counselor is strategically hired then scheduled with the appropriate group to ensure his/her strengths are being put to work. Our staff and our program is one of a kind and will ensure a summer your camper will never forget.

Our staff is committed to providing your camper a safe environment, caring and experienced camp counselors, and fun-filled dynamic days. The summer of 2018 will kick off our 17th summer camp season!

We hire those with a passion to PLAY! Each counselor on FAFC’s summer camp staff is a well-trained, enthusiastic and motivating individual over the age of 18. Several summer counselors have been with us for one or more seasons and may have even been a previous camper!

Each staff member has been screened through an interview process, received background checks and references verified to ensure the safety of your camper. Camp counselors are required to attend an orientation and training prior to the first day of camp. Throughout the training, counselors participate in child development workshops, team building activities, earn a certification in First Aid, CPR and Blood Borne Pathogen and several other exciting and beneficial activities to ensure a successful and safe camp season. Training also offers counselors time to plan programs, work to build a positive group atmosphere and requires staff to embark on finding solutions to challenging situations that may occur throughout the summer and preventative tools to work towards an anti-bullying environment.

“I loved the aspect of team bonding and collaboration with your co-workers. Most companies might not make it an emphasis to promote co-worker relationships but getting along with and working well with your co-workers is an important aspect of any job but especially in this setting. The two weeks of training gave us a great opportunity to do that and I ran into virtually no conflict with other employees,” Freedom Center Camp Counselor

All students will have fun with Minecraft VR! Using the HTC Vive, Minecrafters will create new content for the game they love, and experience it in virtual reality. Vivecraft is a mod that turns Minecraft into a full-featured VR room-scale experience that offers…

• Walk around your room as you mine and build. Blocks in Minecraft are 1 meter in size. You’ll be amazed how big they really are!
• World scaling: Scale your size in the world up or down. Play as an ant or a giant!
• Break blocks and fight by really swinging your hands!
• Shoot your bow realistically by drawing and aiming two-handed!
• Pet animals, feed horses, fill buckets in room scale

*IMPORTANT: Participants are expected to already have their own Minecraft accounts for COMPUTERS (not tablet or Xbox) – with a login and password!

Before and After Care included from 6:30am - 6:30pm!

Campers will participate in supervised, self-directed, unstructured activities during the time periods before and after their camp times.

Add on Swim Lessons to your camper’s day, see page 9!

Shakespeare and Games:
From Stage Combat to Motion Capture (Ages 9-15)

This course blends past and future: the historical art of swordplay with cutting edge motion capture technology! Students will begin by safely delving into the art and technique of swordplay – one of the most sophisticated kinetic systems of human movement. Whether they re-enact a sword fight from Shakespeare’s Romeo and Juliet, or a lightsaber duel from Star Wars, students will learn safe swordplay techniques, as well as the dramatic and technical tools to perform and tell stories of conflict and resolution.

Students will use their newfound knowledge of swordplay and theatrical performance to develop their own characters, conflicts, and choreographed swordplay sequences and create a unique story that will be digitized using motion capture suits and cameras. Students will learn hands-on how a physical performance is converted into digital magic that can be used in creating movies and games. At the end of the class, each student will have a digital copy of their motion capture experience within an authentic virtual 16th century stage.

Students are separated based on age and ability, so each student can work with their peers and be challenged.

This course was created by Brad Waller and his team, who are currently working with MGTA teachers at the Virginia Serious Game Institute (VSGI) in collaboration with the Historical Movement Archive project. Brad Waller is a Visiting Scholar in Residence, working with the VSGI to establish a research program and library in cooperation with George Mason University’s College of Visual and Performing Arts, College of Health and Human Services, and the Center for History and New Media, where the body of digitized movement knowledge will be preserved.

VR Game Development, (Ages 9-14)

Week 2 or 8      Full Day      9:00 am – 5:00 pm   $625

Students will learn to create their own virtual reality experience using Android + Utopia Headsets and the HTC Vive. This course will focus on implementing interactive media designs (minor programming/asset creation) and fully developing the virtual reality software for both mobile and personal computer platforms. Students without a basic familiarity with Unity programming will be provided with a premade asset package so they can focus on designing in VR.

By the end of the class each student will create a VR project for both mobile VR headsets and the HTC Vive (PC). Lesson Topics include: Designing interactive experiences and games, the design challenges specific to VR, basic 3D modeling, environment design for VR, basic programming with C# in the Unity game engine, and the differences between mobile and PC development.

Python: An Introduction to Programming, (Ages 11-15)

Week 4 or 8      Full Day      9:00 am – 5:00 pm   $625

This popular course is an excellent introduction to programming for students of all ages. Python is an excellent first programming language because students can quickly learn how to think like a programmer. Python is easily readable – students won’t need to memorize the complex syntax that other programming languages require. Instead, students will be able to focus on learning programming concepts and paradigms.

This course incorporates fun, visual features to teach Python. While learning to code in Python, students will be able to observe their code in illustrative patterns and designs. This is a fun way to integrate art/design, computer science, and geometry all tied into one course! For more advanced students, this course will also allow them to delve deeper into Python programming, and learn to program simple, textual and graphical based computer games.

Topics that will be covered include: Handling User Input, Python Libraries, Conditional Statements and Boolean Logic, For Loops, While Loops, Lists, Tuples, and Dictionaries, Functions, Geometry and Illustration.

No previous programming experience is required, but solid keyboard / typing skills are required in order to successfully participate in this course.
Jr. Biz Entrepreneurship, (Ages 9-12)

Week 4 or 6 Full Day 9:00 am – 5:00 pm $625

This course is designed to help jump start and nurture the next generation of entrepreneurs and innovators, especially those who are interested in business and technology. The curriculum for this fun-filled class blends hands-on activities with technology/media, to challenge students to solve real-world problems using STEAM principles. Sparking their creativity through invention team challenges, the students work in groups or individually to generate new or cultivate existing business ideas.

As junior inventors, the students will undertake team challenges as they brainstorm how to solve problems using everyday objects. Through imagination and creative play, students will engage in interactive group games to identify problems, generate creative solutions, calculate risks, tackle setbacks, and build confidence, leadership skills, and perseverance.

Students will design prototypes, conduct market research, develop a business plan, and at the end of the week, pitch their ideas or solutions to their peers. At the end of the class, students will be equipped with the resources to expand and build upon their ideas and prototypes at home, and vital 21st century skill sets they will be able to use to continue to bring their ideas and passions to life.

This course is offered in partnership with Out of Blocks.

Intro to Game Design Development and Design (Ages 9-14)

Week 5 Full Day 9:00 am – 5:00 pm $625

The journey begins here for those who are interested in the exciting, fast-changing world of Computer Game Design and VR.
